

Executive Summary

The Customer Sales Analysis evaluates purchasing behavior, customer segments, product performance, subscription adoption, and sales channels across 500 customers. The business generated approximately $40.03K in revenue with an average order value of $80.06 and an average customer rating of 3.49/5.

Accessories and Outerwear were the strongest revenue-generating categories, contributing approximately $10.97K and $10.66K respectively. Middle Aged and Senior customers represented the strongest revenue segments, while Young Adults contributed comparatively less revenue.

Subscription penetration stood at 49%, highlighting a significant opportunity to convert non-subscribed customers. Store Pickup generated the highest revenue among shipping methods at approximately $8.3K.

Overall, the analysis suggests that the business should prioritize retention of high-value mature customer segments, strengthen high-performing product categories, improve subscription conversion, and investigate opportunities to increase engagement among younger customers.
